

Telecommunication number allocation check list

for mobile telephone numbers

Kor-^๒

Kor - ^๒ - ^๑	Information required for requesting number allocation for the first time <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● The need for the allocation, business plan, and estimated revenue from utilized numbers to provide services and positive impact for bringing allocated numbers to provide services. ● Annual number utilization plan for the first five years, including the number management plan, relevant technical information, and area for number distribution according to telephone switching station location. ● Information which shows availability or ability to utilize and manage numbers. This information consists of various steps in the number implementation and information systems, system administration, or operations related to utilize and manage numbers, which support the database number. ● Reports of number utilization and the impact on competition in both cases which applicants are allocated / not allocated numbers.
Kor - ^๒ - ^๒	Information required for obtaining additional allocations
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Amount of additional number allocation requests, including investment plans and business plans to demonstrate the need for additional allocations. These plans should include target revenue or the positive impact of allocated numbers. ● Plans and procedures in utilizing and managing numbers by enumerating the relevant technical information, especially the network connection among switching station and the additional numbers to be distributed to the telephone switching station, the estimation of subscribers in each province, and the telephone switching station locations. ● Plans and procedures regarding numbers preparation to be distributed to telephone switching station, allocated numbers, activated numbers, and quarantined numbers. ● Report on status of allocated numbers. ● Report on consumers' behavior in using the numbers, which has led to the request for an additional allocation.