

Telecommunication number allocation check list

For short codes

Kor -๔

Kor -๔-๒	Information required from for-profit corporate organizations
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Documentary evidence of a juristic person established under Thai law or certified as a juristic person under Thai law. Include corporate information as follows:               <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>(A) Details about subsidiaries: The applicant must provide details of the subscriber who has been assigned a short phone number or is applying for a short phone number allocation or has a business related to the applying company (in the case that the company that the applicant holds shares in such subsidiary). No matter, directly or indirectly, more than 50% of the paid up capital of the company.</li> <li>(B) Details about major shareholders and cross-shareholders: An applicant for the allocation must manage the shareholding structure, including the minority shareholders holding between 5% and 10%. Major shareholders and business structures that shareholders is involved with the telecommunications services and also to include the structured of cross shareholding if possible.</li> <li>(C) Details about people who are involved. Applicants must identify their relationship with others in financial terms. That is, the person or entity has one of the following relationships.                   <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>๑) An ordinary partnership or a partnership of a juristic person that the applicant company applying for a partnership</li> <li>๒) A limited partnership where the company that subscribes for a short phone number is a partner of unlimited liability or a limited liability partnership that shares more than 30% of all shares of a limited partnership.</li> <li>๓) A limited company or a public limited company to which the company applies for the allocation of short phone numbers or a partnership under ๑ or ๒ jointly hold more than 30% of the total number of shares sold of that company.</li> <li>๔) A limited company or a public limited company to which the company applies for the allocation of short phone numbers or a partnership under ๑ or ๒ or company under ๓ jointly hold more than 30% of the total number of shares sold of that company.</li> <li>๕) Cooperate where the company applying for short phone number allocation can have the power to manage as a representative of the entity.</li> </ul> </li> </ul> </li> </ul>
	● The purpose of using a short phone number
	● Status and financial performance of the applicant
	● Offers and plans to demonstrate the necessity of short phone numbers or a business plan to be used with short phone numbers. Include revenue projections or the positive impact of short phone numbers.
	● Short phone number location and service area of short phone numbers
	● Incoming call statistics classified by month (number of calls per month) for the past six months with evidence of origin
	● Installation plan and connection of short phone number devices